I trust you will have received, before this reaches you, my letter from Amsterdam, dated 4. instant; not, the 13th inst. since that time we have not had any thing new in this County.
The attentions of people have been very much turned towards and engaged in contemplating the martial situation. The account of the late revolt in Lancashire has occasioned very great joy in that place where British influence greatly prevails. It is, I think, very much to be lamented that Britain have been engaged in such hostilities. It will do much harm without any possibility of doing good.
The form of the French government seems accomodated to the genius of the French people.
The elections of Liberty Hundred can only be temporary: as many districts will not submit to the Government. I intended when writing will receive a letter which some days passed 1873 came under cover to me. my letters, dated the they have encroached upon the Lands of the Georgians - plundered many Inhab-itants & committed murders not far from Savanna.

The Planters have all erected Forts on their Estates & armed their Negroes for defending them - The Governor has offered a reward for every Indian head - the Assembly have raised a body of regular troops, like antient Carthage, marched them into the Heart of their Enemy's Country in order to draw them from their own. The troops were raised on very good terms. They are to be paid, as the Rangers were, with conquered lands. Be pleased to make my Compliments to Mr Short and believe me to be with the most lively sentiments of friendship & regard

Dear Sir your very much obliged friend & obedient

J. Rutledge Junior

I have this moment received Letters from Charleston dated the 13th Instant in which I find the election came on the 12th proceeding days for Delegates to the Convention - that they had not received Returns from the Country but that in the City & the neighbouring Districts the Elections had been conducted with the greatest Decency & Harmony certain that the new Constitution will be accepted –
